

John Platte of St. Charles was a Cape visitor Monday.

O. Dalton, of Pochontas, Ark., had business in the Cape Monday.

A. E. Baum, of Winona, Minn., is in the Cape on a business trip.

J. A. Glenn of Oron had business in the Cape Monday.

P. Haba of Advance spent Monday in the Cape transacting business.

D. M. Bradley of Kansas City is in the Cape this week on a business trip.

J. C. Young of Illinois spent Monday in the Cape looking after business affairs.

J. C. Norrid of Puxico came to the Cape Monday to attend to some business matters.

Sheriff W. A. Summers of Jackson, was in the Cape Monday attending to official business.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Smith of Allenville were in the Cape Monday on a shopping trip.

G. O. Haggerty and wife of Oswego are Cape visitors this week.

L. G. Wilson of Alton, Mo., paid the Cape a business visit Monday.

W. M. Hunter of Kennett had business in the Cape Monday.

P. F. Teeter of Charleston has business in the Cape Monday.

J. W. Chandler of St. Louis transacted business in the Cape Monday.

B. Magee of Cairo, transacted business in the Cape Monday.

C. A. Harris of Chicago had business in the Cape Monday.

E. F. Hays of Marsten transacted business in the Cape Monday.

H. H. Hans left for St. Louis Tuesday morning on a few days business trip.

H. A. Mayo of Lithium spent Monday in the Cape transacting business.

Oscar Koon of Marion, Ill., is transacting business in the Cape this week.

E. S. Light House Boat Oleander laid up Monday night at the Cape, and Tuesday morning continued on her northward journey.

W. O. Dudley and Lucius Pate of Nettleton Ark., are in the Cape with a car load of bananas.

J. P. Overstreet and Jack T. Jones of Memphis were Cape visitors Monday.

R. M. Jeffries a business man of Thebes came to the Cape Tuesday morning to look after some business matters.

C. E. Hartman, T. M. Griffiths, A. Sehen, Geo. W. Dietrich, E. L. Zuboski, Edgar Smith, J. L. Borgs, and T. McEntee were Cape visitors from St. Louis Monday.

Major Robert Scott Woodson is expected down from St. Louis today to pass upon the applications for enlistment in the army, now on file at the local recruiting station.

Everett Alexander, the well known fisherman from Thebes came to the Cape Tuesday morning with a fine lot of catfish which he disposed of to August Tiechman the prominent local fish dealer.

J. W. Hester and H. L. Ladd of Bloomfield were business visitors in the Cape Monday.

C. F. Frazier, prominent lumberman of Colfax, was a Cape visitor Monday.

Tom C. Fields of Ardmore, Okla., is in the Cape looking after business matters.

J. A. McCullough of Marble Hill is in the Cape this week on a business trip.

Conductor Cagle was married in Poplar Bluff a few days ago, and has brought his wife to the Cape where it is said they will make their home in the future.

S. J. Estess, an old Cape County boy, who has for years been employed as a conductor on the Iron Mountain Railroad, and is now living in Little Rock, has returned to the Cape after an absence of 22 years. He is visiting his daughter, Mrs. C. M. Taylor who lives at 34 Painter Avenue, this city.

Steamer St. Louis passed down Sunday afternoon.

G. H. Dover of Illinois had business in the Cape Saturday.

Mrs. H. A. Fisher of St. Louis was a Cape visitor Saturday.

Frankie Reed of Detroit was a Cape visitor Saturday.

L. L. Chapman of Elsinore paid the Cape a business call Saturday.

W. J. Jones of Jackson had business in the Cape Saturday.

W. M. Angle of Advance is transacting business in the Cape this week.

M. L. Trickey and Ed Rose of Jackson transacted business in the Cape Saturday.

Advertise in the Tribune if you want results.

W. J. Seagraves left Tuesday morning for Memphis for the purpose of bringing Charles Mayhew back to the Cape to testify in the forgery case now being tried against a printer by the name of Jones.

E. P. Proffer of Advance was a Cape visitor Sunday.

James Cozzo and J. P. Baldwin of the Clifton-Kelly Shows arrived in the Cape Sunday.

S. M. Pettit of St. Louis has business in the Cape this week.

Geo. DuCrown of Greenville, Miss., is a business visitor in the Cape this week.

J. M. Deane of Hannibal was a Cape visitor Saturday.

J. M. McGhee of Grandin transacted business in the Cape Saturday.

C. H. Marlett and wife of Evansville have business in the Cape this week.

E. S. Lodrey, Bula Freeman, Essa James and Nellie Waltrip of Clarkton were Cape visitors Sunday.

L. E. Dunlap of Jackson spent Saturday in the Cape transacting business.

J. A. Owens and J. M. Caddington, Clifton-Kelly street fair people arrived in the Cape Sunday.

R. G. White and Frank Kimmel returned Sunday after visiting Southern points on business.

T. T. Dixon of Matthews was in the Cape Sunday.

E. E. Dodgers of Cairo made a hurried trip to the Cape Sunday.

A. F. Watkins and Lucius Pate of Nettleton were Cape visitors Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Taylor of Puxico were Cape visitors Sunday.

Guy Timbare of Advance transacted business in the Cape Saturday.

M. J. Jones of Basin, Wyo., is in the Cape looking for a business location.

James Nathous of Swinton is in the Cape on a business trip.

Eva LaShot of Caruthersville was a Cape visitor Sunday.

Walter J. Irvin and wife, of St. Louis were Cape visitors Saturday.

Mrs. J. T. Rogers of Walnut Ridge was a Cape visitor Sunday.

H. E. Alexander returned from St. Louis Sunday from a two days business trip.

Mrs. Gus Kopper and Miss Theresa Vogt returned from Big Wells, Texas Sunday.

Mrs. Bettie Sturgis of Kennett, came to the Cape Sunday, and will spend several days in this city visiting relatives.

Mrs. Geo. Gilliland, formerly of this city came up from Kennett Saturday to spend a few days visiting friends. Mrs. Gilliland is engaged in the millinery business in Kennett.

Albert Holland an employee of the C. G. & N. Ry. Co., father of the little boy who was recently taken to St. Louis for treatment, was removed from his home near the tobacco factory Saturday evening and taken to the home of his old friend Pat Nations at 506 College street. The attention of the Provident Association was called to the case, and under their direction the sick man was removed to the hospital Sunday afternoon. Mr. Holland is suffering with pneumonia.

Steamer Rees Lee passed up Sunday with a full passenger list and a big cargo.

W. F. Scott of Poplar Bluff had business in the Cape Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Neider of St. Louis were Cape visitors Saturday.

Daniel Fish and wife of Zalma are in the Cape on a shopping trip.

Charles Murphy of Poplar Bluff, a telegraph operator, passed through the Cape Saturday on his way to Lutesville where he has been called to join his company in the 6th Missouri Regiment.

W. D. Lorberg and wife went to Illinois Sunday to attend the dedication of the new Lutheran Church.

D. E. Caw of Black Rock, Ark., had business in the Cape Saturday.

R. H. Schulz of the C. G. & N., left for St. Louis Monday morning.

J. W. Chandler of St. Louis was a Cape visitor Saturday.

E. A. Cart of Stuttgart Ark., had business in the Cape Saturday.

Sam Williams and wife of Dexter are in the Cape on a shopping trip.

A. H. Imboden of Wichita, Kansas, is in the Cape on a business trip.

T. W. Hoskins and wife of Sikeston, were Cape visitors Sunday.

Rachel Edwards and Jessie Crank of Malden, were Cape visitors Sunday.

James McMullin, John Leigh and Paul Leming of Parma, had business in the Cape Saturday.

E. C. Thomas the Haarig real estate man went to Chaffee Monday afternoon on business.

Wm. Hinkle left Friday afternoon for Canolou.

H. L. Rozier of St. Genevieve was a Cape visitor Friday.

Robert Cowan and family and T. M. Lail and family were in Jackson Sunday visiting with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Anita Hutters, daughter of W. F. Hutters of this city, left Sunday for St. Louis, after visiting for a few weeks with her parents.

Willis Stone, a prominent farmer of East Cape came to the Cape Monday to do some trading and visit his daughters who are employed in this city.

John Lilly and his mother went with Ed Beard in his six cylinder Studebaker to Perryville Sunday, to visit Joseph Lilly who is attending a Theological School at that place. They returned Sunday evening.

L. C. Kelly, Catherine Beard, W. L. Winslow, Frank Allen, Ben R. Roberts, Vernon Baker and John Rubel of the Clifton-Kelly shows registered at the Riverview Sunday.

Joe Fisher, formerly of this city, came down from St. Louis Sunday to visit among his old time friends. He will return Tuesday morning.

J. A. Summers took a crew of painters with him Monday afternoon to Oron where they have some work to do on the new residence of Mr. Tenkopf.

Cloris Dawson of Puxico, is in the Cape for a short visit with her father, C. O. Dawson. Cloris has made her home with her grandparents in Puxico ever since she was a tiny baby, and manages to come and see her dad about twice a year.

A party of fishermen composed of Christ Wolf, Nick Weiler, Lee Albert, Will Kooper, Emil Walters, Will Walters, Fritz Brandt, George Wisemann and Polly Ketterer, spent Sunday on Hubble Creek and a nice catch is reported.

On account of the horse she was driving having taken with a sudden illness, Mrs. Schaefer who had been to Illinois for the church dedication exercises Sunday was compelled to phone for relief. Mr. Williams the owner of the horse responded to the call by taking a substitute conveyance to the distressed party, and later brought the sick horse to town.

The death of Mrs. Elizabeth B. Grimm occurred Sunday at the home of her sister, Miss Julia Reynolds on North Main street. Mrs. Grimm belonged to one of the oldest families of the county, and was 74 years and 3 months of age. Besides her sister Mrs. Grimm leaves one son, Donald Grimm of this city to mourn her death. The body will be shipped to Creve Coeur, St. Louis County for burial.

I. E. Marlin of Naylor had business in the Cape Friday.

Stella Hill of Osly visited in the Cape Friday.

R. G. Watkins of Sikeston paid the Cape a business visit Friday.

E. Mattingly of Chaffee was a Cape visitor Friday.

Henry Williams of Fernelt was in the Cape Friday on a business trip.

J. F. Biggerstaff of Kansas City had business in the Cape Friday.

A. L. Franklin and D. B. Raymond of St. Louis were Cape visitors Friday.

W. L. Ward of Paris, Texas, is transacting business in the Cape this week.

Leo Michard a stepple jack of San Francisco is in the Cape on a business trip.

F. L. Mortin of Poplar Bluff had business in the Cape Friday.

Julian Brewer of Perryville transacted business in the Cape Friday.

Ollie Palmer of St. Louis came to the Cape Friday afternoon to meet his mother who has been traveling in Arkansas.

John Freund and son of Benton were Cape visitors Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hunt of Illinois are visiting relatives and friends for a few days.

Mrs. Ida Poe and daughter came from Farmington Sunday to visit her mother, Mrs. Lena Scheer.

Mrs. L. Lutkewitte of St. Louis is visiting her mother, Mrs. John Reiker of this city, and before returning to her home will spend a few days visiting friends and relatives at Advance.

The big plate glass in the front door of the Haarig Furniture Co., was broken into fragments Friday afternoon when the door was slammed by a sudden gust of wind.

Golden Flentge, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Flentge is quite seriously ill with measles.

It is said that the Bank of Bloomfield is soon to resume business with Maj. Houck as President, and W. B. Crites of this city as cashier.

Friday afternoon at about 5:30 o'clock one of the blasts set off on the Frisco improvement work near the freight depot, tore up the track to such extent that traffic was delayed until nearly eight o'clock.

The Wielputz Main Street Branch store served the midday lunch to the employees of the Glenn Mercantile Co., Friday. Everything that could be asked for in the way of a palatable and tempting repast was enjoyed by the force of Cape's mammoth mercantile establishment.

Adam Heiserer a prominent farmer living near Dutchtown was in the Cape Friday on a shopping trip. On his way in he met with the misfortune of breaking a neckyoke and having a runaway, but managed to stop the frightened team without having suffered any serious damage.

The following building contractors are in the Cape for the purpose of submitting propositions for the construction of the new High School, at the meeting of the school board Monday night: J. B. Evans, Mexico, Mo., D. B. Foster, Kansas City, Mo., L. U. Dumas, Jr., St. Louis, J. F. G. Miller, T. M. McCarthy, W. H. Sell of St. Louis, and Edw. F. Regenhart of Cape Girardeau.

Communication received from Mr. Clem Hoeller who has been in St. Louis for sometime undergoing treatment, advises that he and his family will leave St. Louis Friday afternoon, and will reach the Cape Saturday morning, coming by river on the Steamer Cape Girardeau. Mr. Hoeller states in his letter that while he is still in a very poor condition of health he feels that his improvement will warrant him in returning to his home.

Mrs. W. T. Wilson left last Monday for Shreveport, La., where she will visit for a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. J. T. Fitzpatrick, after which she expects to visit in Dallas and Denton, Texas, before reaching her son, W. F. Wilson, in Oklahoma City, with whom she will remain for about a month before finally returning home. She expects to be gone for about two months. She was accompanied as far as Memphis by her son W. F. Wilson who was passing through the Cape on a business trip in the South.

M. Wigginton of Jackson passed through the Cape Friday.

Walter Lawrence of Peoria, Ill., transacted business in the Cape Friday.

John Mann of the Senath Leader paid the Tribune a call Saturday.

W. E. Coleman of Van Buren was in the Cape on a business trip Friday.

R. S. Peters of Willow Springs, transacted business in the Cape Friday.

W. W. Vernon the popular young Frisco engineer left for St. Louis Saturday morning for a short visit with relatives.

J. A. Hickman and wife of Puxico were in the Cape Friday on a shopping trip.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Withers of Allenville were in the Cape on a shopping trip Friday.

Evelyn Minton of Salem, Ill., was a visitor in the Cape Friday.

J. F. Brocken of Thebes, had business in the Cape Friday.

Curtis McFerron, Al Heertell and Guy Dunbar of Brownwood spent Friday in the Cape.

Richard Phillips the young man who was taken to the hospital a few days ago, is reported to be improving rapidly.

The L. S. Joseph home will be sold at Trustee's sale Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock by Sheriff Wm. Summers, at the courthouse. Mr. Henry Rozier of St. Genevieve, who holds the mortgage on the property is in the city.

Matters pertaining to the Kerster Hardware Co., of Poplar Bluff, are being looked after in the Bankruptcy Court in this city this week.

J. F. Ellis of Commerce and J. W. Ellis of St. Genevieve were Cape visitors Friday.

Mrs. Clyde McKee returned from Leemon Friday where she has been visiting a few days with relatives.

Mr. J. Heinberg and family and Mr. V. Priest and family went to the Cape Sunday to spend the day with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meaker went to the Cape Sunday to see his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Macke.

Mrs. Eliza Deck died Saturday at the home of her daughter Mrs. John Mabrey. Mrs. Deck has been sick for six weeks or more when she first taken ill with pneumonia. She was eighty one years of age. The remains were taken to Burfordville Sunday at 1:30 for burial.

Miss Minnie Abernathy went to the Cape Saturday to spend a few days with relatives.

Miss Rose Benningheimer who has been teaching school at Fernelt returned home Saturday evening, after closing her school.

Mrs. T. M. Lail and two grandchildren and Mr. and Mrs. Cowan of the Cape spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lail of this city.

A large number of Jackson Lutherans went to Illinois Sunday to attend the dedicatory exercises.

On six continents the Ford is the favorite car—and its gaining constantly in world-wide popularity. It's the one car built for all countries—all climates—all conditions. Its light weight and unequalled strength makes it the best for all round service the world has ever seen regardless of price. Remember we say regardless of price—not at the price—see?

JACKSON NEWS

Fred Hartle and family were in town Friday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Guy Morton.

Miss Iona Smith of Sikeston is visiting Mrs. Fred Hartle this week.

Ed Pedigo of the Cape is the guest of Mrs. Clarence Grant in West Jackson.

Al Muller of the Cape came over to Jackson Saturday on business.

The eighth grade of the country schools are having a field meet Saturday all day.

The play "Dan Cupid" given by the senior class at the Gem theater Friday evening was a decided success. Each one deserves a word of praise for the clever way in which their various parts were carried out.

Mrs. Kate Schmuke will be greatly missed by her friends when they learn of her leaving Monday for St. Louis to meet her son, Al, where she will accompany him to South Dakota where she will be gone for some time.

Mrs. Jake Vendel and children of Fernelt are visiting Henry Brenneke and family.

Fred Clippard went to the Cape Monday on business.

Mrs. Braze went to St. Louis Monday to visit relatives and friends.

Miss Lena Heider of the Cape is the guest of Mrs. Louie Gayman.

Fred Clippard moved Monday into the property owned by Clyde Vandivort on third East street.

Leonard Scheer returned from the Cape Monday after spending Sunday with relatives.

Clarence Brenneke the little son of Henry Brenneke fell and broke his arm Sunday.

Miss Minnie Bear of Fruitland is here visiting Miss Minnie Elbrecht in West Jackson.

The Mary and Martha society of the Evangelical church will meet Thursday with Amelia Paar.

Mrs. Jake Vendel and family went to Tilsit Monday to stay a week with relatives.

Mrs. Ed. Howard went to St. Louis Monday to visit relatives and to do some shopping while there.

Earl Bowman and wife returned from St. Louis Sunday and will now make their future home at Burfordville on a farm.

CHIEF NICHOLS ACQUITTED OF CHARGE

In the case of the State of Missouri, vs. O'Howell, charged with stealing brass, Chief D. A. Nichols appeared before Judge Ranney Tuesday morning, on the charge of failure to observe a writ of habeas corpus, thereby enabling the officers of Scott county to take the prisoner away. The defendant was released upon his satisfactory showing that at the time of serving the writ the party was not in his custody, having been taken away on Monday.

Orren Wilson the attorney representing O'Howell left for Benton, the county seat of Scott County, Tuesday afternoon, where he will endeavor to secure the release of his client.

STEVENS For Partridge, Woodcock, Squirrel or Rabbit Shooting the 44 GAUGE SHOTGUN

No. 101 IS A WONDER 20 inch barrel, weighs 4 lbs., take down. For 44 X.L., 44 W.C.F. Shot and 44 "Game Getter" Cartridges. List Price Only $5.00. No other here or gauge of shot-guns so efficient under so great a variety of conditions.

J. STEVENS ARMS & TOOL COMPANY P. O. Box 5005 CHICOPPE FALLS, MASS.

NATIONAL GUARD RECEIVES ORDERS.

John B. O'Meara, Adjutant General of the State of Missouri, has sent out letters to the officers of the National Guard, instructing them to familiarize themselves with certain sections of the army and navy regulations which bear on the State Militia and the authority of the United States Government in calling them into service.

ALLEGED BRASS THIEF TAKEN TO ILLMO

G. C. O'Howell, who gave his name as John Davis when arrested by Officer Kane last Saturday, on a charge of stealing brass, was taken from the city jail to Scott County Monday. He will be called upon to answer the charge of having stolen brass from the Cotton Belt Railroad Company at Illinois. Hallack Wilson, special officer of the Cotton Belt and Deputy Sheriff of Scott County escorted the prisoner out of this city. Some of the loot found in his possession was positively identified as being property of the Cotton Belt.